

“Set Your Past on Fire”

“So [Elisha] took the pair of oxen and sacrificed them and boiled their flesh with the implements of the oxen, and gave it to the people and they ate. Then he arose and followed Elijah and ministered to him.” 1 Kings 19:21

→ The pain of falling short is nothing compared to the pain of stopping short.

→ Elisha is a case study in how to respond well.

→ God’s decisions often surprise us.

“Elisha...;you shall anoint as prophet in your place...and he found Elisha while he was plowing...” 1 Kings 19:16,19

→ Destiny is not static; it’s moving.

“He left the oxen and ran after Elijah...” 1 Kings 19:20

→ Elisha burns his past.

“So [Elisha] took the pair of oxen and sacrificed them and boiled their flesh with the implements of the oxen “ 1 Kings 19:21

→ When I look back on my life, my greatest moments will be those moments when I was all in.

→ My destiny requires a decision.

→ An altar is a place where God makes alterations.

→ In order to move forward, I need to burn:
